

Bill of Rights of The Grand Republic of Moontonia

1. It is hereby recognized and declared that in Moontonia all citizens have the:
  - a. The right to freedom of religion;
  - b. The right of the individual to equality before the law;
  - c. The right of the individual to life, security of the person, and enjoyment of property.

2. All citizens of the Moontonia are entitled to:
  - a. Access to a clean and reliable source of water;
  - b. Access to food;
  - c. Access to shelter.

3. All citizens of the Moontonia shall be given the means to stay safe and protected from danger, whether that be protection by self or military.

4. All inhabitants of the Moontonia when in court, are entitled to an attorney. If they do not have one, the state will provide them with one.

5. All convicted citizens have the right to bail unless The Cabinet or Supreme Leader say otherwise. The court possesses the right to determine the bail.

6. All Senate and Cabinet members when in debate, have the right to:
  - a. Speak freely about topics pertaining to the debate.

7. All Senate and Cabinet members are exempt from:
  - a. Taxation;
  - b. Imprisonment or exile without a trial;
  - c. The requirement to accept a duel;
  - d. Banned media, goods, or services.

8. The Cabinet reserves the right to edit, change, or add to this bill.